

EBP OF THE MONTH: VIDEO MODELING

What is Video Modeling (VM)?

Video Modeling is a form of teaching that uses video recording to provide a visual model of the targeted behaviors or skill. In VM, students can see themselves performing a behavior successfully on video, and then imitate the targeted behavior or skill.

Examples of VM for the classroom:
taking turns, asking for help, lining up
Visit: <https://afirm.fpg.unc.edu/video-modeling>